SATURDAY EVE'G., SEPTEMBER 27.

How AN EX-PRESIDENT RECOVERED HIS OLD TAILORING TABLE. -Ex-President Johnson has been noted for his kindness to tailors. Some time since, he loaned to one of them, the old table on which he used to ply his shears and needle, and from which he in an unparalleled career, rose to the Presidency. During the cholera alarm of June last, this brother left Greenville in a hurry, taking his family with him to Bristol. In the confusion he neglected to leave behind this celebrated table. Mr. Johnson was prostrated by a violent attack of cholera, and could not look after out door matters, and so the table found its way to Bristol. Of course it was regarded by the family, as too interresting to be lost, and on Wednesday last, Mr. ——— Johnson, son of the ex-President, arrived in Bristol in quest of it, and found it safely locked in one of the A. M. & O. cars, and snugly billed for a distant Virginia town, to which the aforesaid tailor had already removed. There was no use in a warrant in detinue, for the service could not be made, and as both table and tailor were in Virginia, an attachment could not be gotten in the State, and one from a Tennessee Justice could not be served.

Did the pursuit end here? Not a bit of it. Learning that many of the Virginia cars are backed across the State line to the Tennessee switch, in order to get them on the proper track, Mr. Johnson procured from a Justice, on the Tennessee side, a warrant of replevin, and when this car was being switched for its Virginia journey, there was present a Tennessee officer, who very dexterously switched the celebrated table out of it, and turned it over to the son of the ex-President, who now has it again in Greeneville. - Bristol News.
